

The Personnel Committee has not met during this quarter. We anticipate a need to meet after the conclusion of the 2021 legislative session to review any state labor law changes that could impact the operation of the agency.